

Death of Geo. B. Wittle.

Mr. George B. Wittle, who was well known to the people of Salt Lake, died at his rooms on First East street, Sunday night, of pneumonia. The deceased was born at Norfolk, England, in 1837, and emigrated to St. Louis when he was twenty years of age, where he resided until 1871, and then came to Salt Lake. He was a member of the Masonic brotherhood, and will be buried to day from the Metropolitan Hotel, at 12 o'clock, under the auspices of Mount Moriah Lodge No. 2, A. F. & A. M.
