

Mount Moriah Re-Union.

The members of the Mount Moriah lodge had a reunion in the Walker House parlors, on Tuesday evening. The guests numbered about about one hundred ladies and gentlemen, who assembled about 8 o'clock in the evening and enjoyed themselves for several hours. Mrs. Haydon, Miss Epply, Miss Birdie Greenwald, Miss Phoebe Simon and Mrs. J. M. Allen, alternately varied their voices in sweet songs for the gratification of the guests, and Mr. Barnes sang, accompanied by Mr. Eagles on the violin.

At about 10.30 they adjourned to the dining hall, where a splendid banquet was partaken, and toasts proposed as follows:

The Grand Lodge of Utah; responded to briefly and appropriately by Deputy Grand Master John S. Scott.

The process of Freemasonry in Utah; responded to by Chas. Lopper.

To the memory of George Washington; responded to by R. H. Robertson.

Freemasonry wherever blended round the globe; answered by Louis Cohn briefly yet eloquently and to the point.

Sister Lodges in Utah; responded to by C. W. Bonnett.

To the ladies; responded by Judge Haydon.

Mount Moriah Lodge, answered by the Master of the Lodge, Christopher Diehl.

When the banquet was over, the hall was cleared, and the dance commenced, and kept up until a late hour. The whole affair went off with beautiful harmony, and was a most enjoyable time.
