

MT. MORIAH INSTALLATION.

The Ceremony Followed by a Grand Banquet.

The installation of Mt. Moriah lodge No. 2 was held on Monday night. The ceremonies were followed by an elaborate banquet, and the evening's programme will linger for years in the memory of those present as one of the most memorable events of this popular lodge of A. F. and A. M.

Dr. William T. Dalby, as deputy grand master of the Utah jurisdiction, presided at the installation, and the officers named were as follows: W. J. Lynch, W. M.; J. G. Bywater, S. W.; J. J. Donovan, J. W.; T. M. Surbaugh, treasurer; Christopher Diehl, secretary; A. C. Staten, S. D.; George W. Hazen, J. D.; C. M. Howard, S. S.; G. D. Aiken, I. S.; C. J. Corker, tyler.

The banquet which followed was a most elaborate and enjoyable one. Dr. Dalby acted as toastmaster, and the toasts were given most cleverly by the following:

Christopher Diehl, "Duties of Subordinate Lodges to the Grand Lodge."

A. S. Chapman, "Supervision of Grand Lodge over Subordinate Lodges."

John S. Scott, "How Far Should the Masonic Fraternity Become Interested in Political and Municipal Matters?"

John F. Hardie, "How Does Masonry Improve Mankind?"

W. J. Lynch, "The Duties of a Master."

H. M. Cushing, "The Three Sister Lodges of Salt Lake City."

Dr. J. N. Harrison of Nebraska, "What I Have Learned of Utah Masonry."

Mort W. Taylor, "Some Things I Have Learned in a Nine Months' Tour in California."

J. G. Bywater, "How can Subordinate Officers Assist the Master in the Progressive Influence of the Lodge?"

R. W. Grant, "Some Reflections of a Master."

J. H. Bowman, "My Opinions of Masonry."

C. E. Stanton, "Am I Pleased that I Have Become a Mason?"

J. J. Willard, Pueblo, "Colorado Masonry."
